Embark on a Journey into the Heart of the Internet

This exclusive one-day workshop for faculty members offers a deep dive into the foundations of Internet engineering, global standards development, and the transformative potential of Internet measurement. As part of the workshop, faculty will be inducted into the AIORI Ambassadors Program, with the following responsibilities:

- Host AIORI Measurement Anchors in their networks to support student learning and active measurements.
- Conduct a student workshop at their respective institutions in August 2025.
- Enroll student teams for a two-month remote Standards Hackathon, culminating in the Grand Finale at Chandigarh University in November 2025.
